QUT Readings

QUT Readings is an online repository where lecturers can put articles and book chapters which are very useful for their units.

Lecturers often put resources into QUT Readings which are relevant to your assignments.
QUT Readings

You can get to QUT Readings through the Blackboard site of your unit. You can usually find it on the Learning Resources page.
From your unit’s Blackboard site, you will go straight to the list of resources in QUT Readings for that unit.

Click on the Online Resource buttons to retrieve the resources.
Quick Find

Quick Find is a search tool that will search through the QUT Library catalogue and various databases to find a large range of resources on a particular topic.

Simply put your search terms into the search box and click on the magnifying glass.
Quick Find

On the Search page you can refine your search by:
- format
- subject area

Limit your search to recent publications by moving this left-hand tab to the year you want.

Or you can put dates in the boxes.

If you are looking for peer-reviewed articles, click ‘peer reviewed only’.

Click on the name to find the resource.
Quick Find

There is the option for an Advanced Search next to the search box.

The Advanced Search page gives you the option to look for resources:
- Written by a particular author
- Containing particular words in the title
- Published in a particular journal
